DAY 1.

PREPARATIONS AND ARRIVAL

Before setting off on your adventure, you'll receive an email with practical information and all the details you need to prepare for your trip to Torres del Paine. On the first day of your program, you'll meet your host, who will be an important part of your adventure and who will give you your Welcome Kit. At 3:00 p.m. the same day, you must arrive at our Puerto Natales office, located at Bulnes 83, for the briefing with the guide. The private van transfer will depart from the same location at 4:00 PM. The drive to the park takes approximately 2 hours. Upon arriving at the Central Sector, you can enjoy a welcome drink and partake in the special Explorer's Ritual, a ceremony designed to kick off your adventure in Patagonia. Then you'll have time to settle in, relax, and enjoy a delicious dinner before you begin your days of exploration.

DAY 2.

REACHING THE FIRST PEAK

You'll start the day with a hike through the Ascencio Valley to Los Vientos Pass, taking in incredible panoramic views of Patagonia. On the hike, you'll pass through the Chileno Sector and a forest of native lenga trees before tackling the final rocky stretch to Base Torres.

Upon arrival, you'll be rewarded with a spectacular view of the iconic Torres del Paine and its glacial lake below. On the way back, you will make a pit stop in Chileno to rest and enjoy something warm to drink.

The day ends with a welcome beverage and a special After Trek event at Central Sector, where we will celebrate our achievement of reaching Base Torres as a group. You will stay the night in Central Sector.

DAY 3.

INTO THE HEART OF THE MASSIF

Walk along the shores of Lake Nordenskjöld and to the foot of Mount Almirante Nieto and its hanging glaciers. Surrounded by striking geographical contrasts, this area is also home to many birds, such as the majestic condors that soar overhead.

After crossing the Arriero River, you'll continue to the highest viewpoint on the trail, where you can admire Lake Nordenskjöld, the Francés Glacier, and Mount Cerro Paine.

Finally, you'll continue on to the Cuernos Sector and then to the Francés Sector, where you can relax and unwind amidst the Patagonian wilderness.

DAY 4.

FULL IMMERSION AND CONNECTION

Start the morning with a breathtaking hike to the Italiano Campsite, taking in some of the most stunning scenery in Torres del Paine. Surrounded by mountains, lakes, and lush vegetation, you'll feel the special energy and tranquility of Patagonia. During the hike, you'll pass a beautiful waterfall on your way to the Francés Valley, one of the park's most iconic spots. First, you'll come to the Francés Viewpoint, which overlooks the glacier and the peaks of Cuernos del Paine. You will then continue to the Británico Viewpoint, the highlight of the hike. Both viewpoints offer breathtaking panoramic views of granite cliffs, hanging glaciers, and the majestic peaks of the Paine Massif. At the end of the day, you'll return to the Francés Sector to relax as you take in the Patagonian scenery.

DAY 5.

ONE LAST PUSH AND A FINAL CELEBRATION

On the last day, you'll hike to the Grey Glacier viewpoint to explore one of the park's most iconic landscapes. From there, you can admire the immense Southern Ice Field, the icebergs floating on the lake, and the majestic Paine Massif.

The trail winds through native forests and scenic viewpoints that invite you to enjoy the tranquility and vastness of Patagonia. You will then cruise across the turquoise waters of Lake Pehoé aboard the catamaran, taking in the last views of the park before heading to the Central Sector.

To wrap up the experience, you'll enjoy a farewell dinner before heading back to Puerto Natales, taking home unforgettable memories of this adventure in Torres del Paine. The return transfer from Central to Puerto Natales departs at 9:30 PM. You can extend your stay for an extra night at the hotel or in the Central Sector.
